THOUGHT FOR TODAY:

Lord how is it possible to know Your thoughts and to understand Your counsel? Is knowing You so closely attainable in the life of a Saint of God and if so how?

Lord You're magnificentimpressively beautiful, elaborate, extravagant and striking. Lord You deserve all my love, all my praise, and all of my attention.

Sustain - To strengthen or support physically or mentally. To keep (something) going over time or continuously.

Meditate on Psalm 29:1-11 Who is talking in your ear today? Who do you respond to more quickly? Whose voice do you long to hear? How much time do you spend seeking God? If God silenced all the sounds of the world would you be most satisfied with only hearing His voice?

THOUGHT FOR TODAY:

Meditate on Psalm 36:1-12

Lord how can I drink from the river of Your pleasures? What does look like in the life of a Saint of God?

life of a Saint of God?
How do I position myself to be satisfied with the blessings and benefits that come from knowing You?

Meditate on Revelation 21:1-27
Lord where is my heart today?
Lord am I prepared to meet You in peace and righteousness?
Is my life, what I do, what I think, what I say and how I live measuring up to the standard of holiness You have established?
If heaven is my intended eternal home why do I feel so connected to the temporal things that shall pass away?
Thank you Lord for such sweet revelations!!!

Lord are you pleased with the current level of faith that I have in You? Lord do You see integrity and commitment in the faith that I currently possess? Can my current level of faith sustain me for the times ahead? Lord show me how this scripture is to be represented in the faith life I live before You and those around me. Thank you Lord for such sweet revelations!!!
